

Allstar Training Ltd Consultancy Service Packages

A written Health & Safety policy is a legal requirement for any company employing 5 or more staff. Allstar Training can offer consultancy services to ensure your company is compliant with the law. We have a number of different packages available dependant on the level of support you require.

What your package includes...	Bronze Star Package 	Silver Star Package 	Gold Star Package 	Platinum Star Package
Site visits per year (or remote work undertaken), to be used for such things as H&S Inspections, Risk Assessments, Method Statements, preparing documentation, Audit / Inspection of premises, COSHH Assessments and Fire Risk Assessments.	None	1 Day or 7.5 Hours (Per Year)	2 Days or 15 Hours (Per Year)	4 Days or 30 Hours (Per Year)
A telephone and email hotline for any day to day Health & Safety issues. You will have access to a qualified and experienced SHE consultant who will review, advise and recommend on any SHE related matters.
Annual Review of Health & Safety Policy.
You will be informed of any SHE regulation updates, helping to keep your business compliant with current legislation.
Health & Safety legislation updates will be issued to you, ensuring you understand and implement, on time, any changes that may affect your business.
Receive support and advice from Allstar Training on SHE compliance and reference the Consultant from Allstar Training as your competent SHE advisor.
Advice provided for all staff/company training requirements and discount offered on courses supplied by Allstar Training.
Management of your training matrix and reminders when refreshers are due to ensure your training is always kept up to date.
Advice on general Health & Safety and the company's approach to this. Help with plans to improve current procedures.	-
Assisting in accident / incident investigations (within visits).	-	-
Attending internal or external meetings on the company's behalf (within visits).	-	-	-	